Re: United States v. Barbara Meyzen, 19 Cr. 664 (VB)

Dear Judge Briccetti:

After Ms. Meyzen pled guilty on March 5, 2020, and Your Honor set her sentencing date for June 24, 2020, I realized that Judge Gardephe had set a trial of June 15, 2020 for my client, Jean Claude Lanji, in the case of United States v. Gonzalez, 18 Cr. 601 (PGG). The government has predicted two weeks for the trial of that case (which, frankly, I regard as rather optimistic). I did not have that date on my calendar when I checked it after Ms. Meyzen's guilty plea because Judge Gardephe had issued the order setting the trial date when I was out of town, and then confirmed the date at a pretrial conference on Monday, March 9, 2020. I have conferred with Ms. Hilbert, who advises me that July 29, 2020 at 2:30 pm is available as an adjourned date for Ms. Meyzen's sentencing. I respectfully request that the sentencing be adjourned to that date and time. I have also conferred with Assistant United States Attorney McMahon, who has no objection to this request.

Respectfully submitted,

s/James R. DeVita
